

Ministry of Land,
Infrastructure and Transport

Flights Suspended on Incheon-Wuhan Route

The Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport (Minister Kim Hyun-mee) suspends international flight operations between South Korea and Wuhan of China starting from Thursday, January 23rd.

Currently, Korean Air and China Southern Airlines have operated four flights each per week. However, the spreading outbreak of new coronavirus originated from Wuhan has caused the carriers to suspend their operations on the route.